Partnership

Title IX. - PARTNERSHIP

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 1767. By the contract of partnership two or more persons bind themselves to contribute money, property, or industry to a common fund, with the intention of dividing the profits among themselves.

Two or more persons may also form a partnership for the exercise of a profession.

Concept of partnership – a partnership is a:

- Contract
- Association
- Legal relation
- Status arising out of a contract
- Organization
- Entity distinct and apart from its members
- Joint undertaking to share in profit and loss

Civil law concept and American concept of partnership distinguished

	Philippine	American
Basis of concept	Contract – it is the agreement itself where out of which it is created	Relation – Anglo American idea of partnership is based on the result of the juridical relation growing out from the express or implied agreement of the parties
Possession of separate personality	Has a separate juridical personality of its own, distinct and separate from that of each of the partners	No separate juridical personality. It is a mere extension of its members. (although some state unions classify the partnership as a separate entity)

Partnership for the practice of law:

- A mere association for non-business purpose is in the nature of a privilege or franchise
 - Cannot use nom de plume, assumed or trade name, as compared to the practice of accountancy
- Distinguished from business – not an ordinary money making trade

- A duty of public service
- A relation as an officer of the court to the administration of justice involving sincerity, integrity and reliability
- A relation to clients in the highest fiduciary degree
- A relation to colleagues of the bar characterized by candor, fairness, and unwillingness to resort to current business methods of advertising and encroachment on their practice or dealing directly with their clients

Characteristics/ elements of partnership:

- Consensual – perfected by mere consent express or implied
- Nominate – special name or designation in law
- Bilateral – entered into by two or more persons and the rights and obligations are reciprocal
- Onerous – benefit by giving something
- Commutative – undertaking of each partner is considered as equivalent of the others
- Principal – does not depend on its existence on other contracts
- Preparatory – means to an end
- A contract of Agency

Essential features of partnership:

- There must be a valid contract
- The parties must have legal capacity to enter into the contract
- There must be mutual contribution of money, property, industry to a common fund
- The object must be lawful
- The primary purpose must be to obtain profits and to divide the same among themselves
- Articles of partnership must not be kept secret among the members otherwise there is no legal personality

Existence of a valid contract:

- Partnership relation fundamentally contractual
 - There is no such thing as partnership created by law or operation of law alone
 - Form – oral or written, express or implied subject to the provisions of Art. 1771, 1773, and Statute of Frauds. Thus a member need not sign articles of co-partnership to become a member, election is sufficient
 - Articles of partnership – a written document embodying the terms of the
